

Hillsboro's Kayla Deatley signs with SSCC Patriots

CUTLINE: Kayla Deatley (center), a graduate of Hillsboro High School, signed a National Letter of Intent to play softball for the Southern State Community College Patriots. The daughter of David Deatley and Pam Claycomb (seated), Kayla will be a freshman at Southern State this fall. During her tenure at H.H.S., Kayla played varsity softball and soccer. She earned First Team SCOL and First Team All-District for soccer in 2011. She is pictured with SSCC Coach Sanders and SSCC Athletic Director Adam Holbrook (standing 1-r).
