

SSCC awards WCH scholarship to Trevor Phillips

The Washington C.H. Police Department presented its annual scholarship to Trevor Phillips, a graduate of Washington High School and the son of Cathy Phillips.

Phillips is enrolled in the law enforcement associate degree program at Southern State Community College, while also working security at Fayette County Memorial Hospital. Following his graduation, he plans to enter the Ohio Peace Office Training Academy at SSCC's Fayette Campus in Washington C.H.

"My goal is to become a law enforcement officer to help better my community by serving and protecting it," Phillips stated in his application. "Hopefully I can work my way up to an administrative position and have a greater effect on the community I live in."

Washington C.H. Police Department Detective Jonathan Sever said of again choosing
