

Preparing for college in high school
Local student shares College Credit Plus experience

“I would definitely say it’s a great thing for people who want to go to college,” she said. “It challenges you and makes you a better person, and you make a lot of friends and connect with a lot of professors.”